The CINE project continues...

Dear friends,

It has been a little longer than usual between our newsletters as the global coronavirus pandemic has - as in many areas of life - forced us to pause and re-consider our plans, priorities, ways of working and our roles in our communities.

Our main funder - the Northern Periphery and Arctic Programme - have allowed us to extend the project until the end of December 2020. The extension will give us time to test some of our tools with members of the public and other stakeholders as restrictions on movement and gatherings are eased in our partner countries.

Project partners have been able to move many of their activities online, and will continue to do so - keep an eye on future newsletters and our social media channels for partner events, and for an autumn programme of online talks in place of our postponed conference.

If you missed any of the past events hosted by our partners, you can still take an online virtual tour of the medieval monastery of Skriðuklaustur, view videos of reconstructions of sites in the Strath of Kildonan over time, learn new skills through digital heritage "how-to" events on the Open Virtual Worlds Facebook page, and view Timespan's excellent thought- and action-provoking Real Rights exhibition online.

We will be back in touch with more news and details of upcoming events soon; until then do take care of yourselves.
